ALBANT, April 10 .- Gov. Sulzer signed to-night the Cullen-Levy bill which, he says, carries out the plank in the Democratic State platform to give the cities of the State genuine home rule.

The passage of the bill through the Legislature was due largely to the efforts of J. O. Hammitt, the Albany representative of the Citizens Union, and it was favored by the State conference of Mayors of cities and many civic organizations throughout the State.

This new law equips each city with full authority to carry out all the fund tions of local self-government and almshouse buildings were disapproved emancipates each city from interference hereafter from the State Legislature at Albany, except in structural changes in the government of a city.

The effect of the new law will be to render it unnecessary hereafter for home rule policy. cities to come to Albany for power to EXTENT OF BILL'S APPROVAL. do anything along lines in consonance the the present government structure of the city. Of course, if a city desired to have open saloons on Sunday if would have to come to Albany, because this is governed by a general State law, or if it wished to change the structural administration of the Police Department, such as to establish a wel-are commission as suggested by the Wagner police investigating commitsee, Albany legislation would be needed

Work of Departments.

Under this law the Dock Department or the Police or the Health Department Municipal Government Association to carry in New York city will apply to the local authorities, the Board of Aldermen and the Mayor, for any powers which may be needed to carry on the work of any of these departments without coming to Albany

Cities may provide also for pensions for city employees and for the erection of newsstands and need not come to Albany for power to issue bonds for buildings or for paving streets. The new law gives cities full power to manage and control their property and all their local affairs and will, it is estimated, render unneces- of the Democratic majority in Albany and sary the passage by the Legislature they agreed to accept it as a party measure hereafter of upward of 190 special bills to carry out the home rule pledges coneach which now clog the legislative tained in their State platform. calendars.
